hypnosis; they seem to be separated by some sort of an insulating line or partition. The super natural phenomena I have referred to, seem to bear the same sort of relation to our waking consciousness as those under hypnosis, and are liable to be forgotten entirely, during normal waking states; at least such happened to be the case with me during the earlier stages of my experiences on these lines. But by and by as instances began to multiply, the insulating line seemed gradually to wear out, and there appeared lines of communication joining the two hitherto separated regions of the brain, enabling me thereby to remember quite clearly the whole series of my super natural experiences, reflected on the mind-screen, as on a mirror even during normal states of waking consciousness. It is because of this only, that it has become possible for me to write in detail, all that I did experience regarding the super natural, while undergoing my term of 'Life sentence |/

As usual, I soon busied myself with my daily routine of work i.e. stone breaking, road metaling etc, and ceased to remember anything regarding the super natural for some time to come. I had not been in Port Mouat for very
